Good morning all,
Odwalla, the drink company, is hosting a fund raiser on their website. The funds go to one of my parks, Cuyamaca Rancho SP for tree restoration. Every time someone clicks on "California", on the website www.parkvisitor.com/odwalla, we get a dollar for the tree planting program at Cuyamaca Rancho State Park. There is no cost to the user.

We have planted over 300 acres of trees in the last two years with an additional 2,000 acres to go. The program helps to reforest our park after the 2003 Cedar Fire, which burned 90% of the park and in many areas natural regeneration has not occurred.

This is very easy and you can "vote" more than once. Would you please vote today and pass this on to your friends and organizations.

Thank you so much,

Subject: San Jacinto trail work
From: BOONE, GEORGE L"
<george.boone@dhs.gov>

To all hands,

Please join us on this trail work project on the beautiful Mount San Jacinto near Idyllwild. The PCTA efforts in maintaining this section of our trail have been a June tradition for the last 12 years. This San Jacinto section of the PCT is the most spectacular and difficult in southern California. Spike camp will be at Strawberry Junction near where the Deer

Springs trail meets the PCT. We will have a dedicated cook and all the tools, supplies, food and refreshments will be packed in by horses. The work will be mostly rock work, erosion control and some brushing. You can join us for a day or two or the whole week as you wish. Bring a friend! Remember you don't have to be one of those unfortunate people who actually pay to go to the gym. The azaleas are in bloom and at 7-9000 feet the weather is great this time of year. Please let us know of your plans. Thanks George Boone

09-65. June 12 – 21. Fri // Sun. Section "B". Strawberry Junction. CDP&R/San Jacinto SP and SBNF/San Jacinto RD. Maps B 9 & 10. Brushing and trail reconstruction. Camp at Strawberry Junction supported by packers. Rendezvous Friday Jun 12 at 0800 hrs at Deer Springs trailhead on Hwy 243 at County Park 0.7 mi north of stop sign in Idyllwild. Packers will take in supplies, equipment, and as much personal gear as they have room for. Walk in 3.83 mi. and up 2500' to camp. Save Los Caballos: Trial date set

At the May 14 court date a trial date was set for January 22, 2010.

Would you please send a tax deductible donation to support this legal action? Cory has significantly reduced his fees on our behalf as he believes State Parks will lose in court and end up paying his attorney fees. Tax deductible donations may be written to CEA and sent to CEA, PO Box 79, Descanso, CA 91916. Any donation of $500 or more will be matched and also qualifies for a refund (proportional to expenses incurred) if the lawsuit settles or we prevail in court.

Park News

* Granite Springs Water – Pump is fixed. There is water flowing at Granite Springs.

* Adopt a work party – Do you enjoy the trails of Cuyamaca? They desperately need your help. Take one day out of 365 to give to the park.

Encourage your club membership to volunteer for a workparty date. This is a good time of year to work on the trails. Information on the CEA website www.cuyamacaequestrian.org <<http://www.cuyamacaequestrian.org/>>

* Trail conditions – Gorgeous!! Grass growing, streams flowing, flowers blooming.

* Clean up trash - Take a few moments to clean up trash left by less considerate folks. Please do not empty your horse trailer manure; load any piles back into your trailer.
